Cal Poly Music Ensembles to Perform Benefit Chamber Concert at Mission Feb. 5

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Several of Cal Poly's finest student music ensembles will perform traditional and contemporary chamber music at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 5, in the Old Mission Church in San Luis Obispo.

"A Night at the Mission" will include performances by various instrumental ensembles including woodwind quintets, saxophone quartets, horn choir, flute choir, clarinet ensemble, trumpet ensemble, trombone choir, brass choir, string quartet and brass quintet.

The event will help raise money for the University Jazz Bands – Cal Poly's two big bands – to travel to Puerto Rico in June, where they will perform and take part in educational clinics and workshops. They'll perform traditional as well as modern jazz and will learn about Latin jazz from local musicians. The trip is scheduled for June 12-18 and promises to be rewarding and exciting.

Tickets to the Feb. 5 performance are $8 and $10 and can be purchased at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday. Tickets may also be purchased at the door the night of the concert.

To order tickets by phone, call 805-756-2787 (SLO-ARTS). A 10 percent discount is given to patrons who buy season tickets to four Music Department events through the Performing Arts Ticket office; a 15 percent discount is given on tickets to five or more events.

"A Night at the Mission" is sponsored by the Cal Poly Music Department, the College of Liberal Arts and the Instructionally Related Activities program.
